Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During the summers of 1976 and 1984, as I was growing up, my family took vacations to New York. These vacations were distinct for a few reasons.

The 1976 vacation was the first we were able to take, and afford, as a family that was a full weeks' time in length. During that trip it was my parents, my brother and me, and my grandmother. We visited the Corning factory in Corning, NY; as well as the Baseball Hall-of-Fame in Cooperstown NY. We stayed at a hotel close to the railroad tracks in Cooperstown, and I remember eating at two specific restaurants. One served Italian food; the other was a VERY small facility that had a seating capacity of about 20 people. As of this writing, I believe this restaurant is still in operation. My brother and I ran the bases of Abner Doubleday field (one could simply walk out onto the field at that time).

The 1984 vacation was also distinct because it was only my mom, dad, and me. We stayed at a Holiday Inn in Binghamton, NY on the way up to Cooperstown. The town itself had changed a little between 1976 and 1984 as well. The little restaurant was still in operation, but the Italian restaurant was no longer in business. A few of the displays within the Baseball Hall-of-Fame itself were different in 1984 as well.

However, one specific item was the same: un-changed, un-altered, and still exuding the same power, majesty, awe, and influence upon all who visited; stood before it; and "absorbed" its significance. The red locker, white pinstripe uniform, and crown of the king of baseball; George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Number 3 for the New York Yankees.

As a child in 1976, and even as a high school senior in 1984, standing before this locker was a truly “spiritual” experience because for me personally, it was during that almost 10-year time period that my desire to become a sports broadcaster was cultivated.

Fast forward another decade-plus, and events and circumstances in my life changed and altered my life’s path to the point that I now stand before you on a weekly basis broadcasting the word of God (which is also literally true because of Trinity’s radio ministry as well).

What these vacations to Cooperstown, and our weekly worship experiences have in common is the throne of the King. Of course, the more profound and influential in our lives is the throne of God, the Altar within the sanctuary which still exudes the same power, majesty, awe, and influence upon all who visit it; stand before it; and “absorb” its significance.

This of course is as a result of the body and blood of our risen Lord and Savior, Christ Jesus!

To stand before this Altar is life changing to a degree, we simply are unable to comprehend, and at times even appreciate.

What This throne, and the items we place upon it, and receive from it on a monthly basis (which is something we should actually have a discussion about at some time...hint, hint), represents is for us not the abilities of a man to hit a little white ball further and better than almost anyone else ever had, but the very God whom we worship, having given his life; the very last ounce of his blood, sweat, tears, and breath, to ensure we too are treated as kings.

For ONLY as a result of the work and sacrifice of Christ Jesus on our behalf (and NOTHING of our own efforts), we are made worthy of God’s grace and acceptance. God then stands before us as, through the work of Christ Jesus, we exude the same power, majesty, awe, and influence upon God, as God visits with us; stands before us; and, as a result of our being made new in Christ Jesus, God “absorbs” and accepts” our significance.

Peace be with you all!      Pastor Chris Rothharpt

HELPING THOSE IN NEED

A new and different look at Trinity's Food pantry:

It has been a little while since a fresh, new article filled this page of our newsletter. However, in that time, the old story of hunger has also remained unchanged. Many people in our community, and even some close to our congregation, and perhaps even our homes, struggle with not having enough to eat.

It still may be hard for us to imagine that with all the food available in grocery stores, restaurants, etc. That people in our neighborhoods may not have enough to eat. However, it's a compound effect. Not having enough to eat often stems from not having enough money to provide for oneself, let alone an entire family. Clothing and shelter may also be an issue for some of these individuals and families.

For our part, Trinity has continued to respond to individuals and families in our community and beyond, who have need. From our supplies in Trinity's Food Pantry, to the Adopt-A-Child program, to Easter Baskets, etc. We have helped to make a few families lives a little better, even if in small ways. This is as a result of the faithful and generous support of everyone here at Trinity.

The closing of our baptismal liturgy contains the words:

We welcome you into the body of Christ and into the mission we share: join us in giving thanks and praise to God and bearing God's creative and redeeming word to all the world. - (ELW: p 231)

It is our baptismal calling to join in the mission of caring and providing for those in our midst. Jesus and his disciples traveled the countryside of Israel teaching, healing, and blessing those whom they encountered. By continuing to support the ministries we offer, including Trinity's Food Pantry, we continue to not only complete our baptismal calling, but also perform the same works as did our Lord and Savior, Christ Jesus.

Furthermore, Christ Jesus himself said:

"Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father." - (John 14:12 – NRSV)

While nothing we can do is equal to the work of the Cross and Resurrection; Jesus states that the work we do (in His name, for others) may even be greater because of the widespread scale we have to positively impact the lives of others, simply by giving back.

Pastor Chris

ALMS BOXES

Built into the rear wall of the sanctuary are what has traditionally been called the “Alms Boxes”. They are there to receive your gifts, which are used to support ministry with and among the poor and displaced. Gifts placed in the Alms Boxes buy food for the hungry, lodging for the homeless, bus tickets or fuel for the transient, medicine for the sick, and on and on. As you leave worship, remember to stop by and make your gifts regularly by using our Alms Boxes. On behalf of those who will receive your help, please accept our thanks and appreciation.
