A prayer from Pastor Chris

Most gracious and loving God, we are tired, we are wandering in the wilderness, we are in need of hope, of Your guidance, of Your presence, of peace, of a light at the end of our tunnel. We have been beset by a year in which hardship has hit us all, as individuals, as a community of faith, as a nation, and as our world. Help us Lord Jesus. Come to our aid, give us the strength we need to endure as we struggle to find the strength within ourselves. And the Lord spoke saying, “As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass” (Isaiah 66:13-14 NRSV) AMEN +

He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. (Philippians 1:6)

BEGIN WITH THE END

“What do you want to be when you grow up?”

I was often asked the question as a child and the answers changed like the wind. A doctor. A firefighter. A missionary. A worship leader. A physicist—or actually, MacGyver (a favorite TV character)! Now, as a dad of four kids, I think of how difficult it must be for them to be asked that question. There are times when I want to say “I know what you’d be great at!” Parents can sometimes see more in their children than the children can see in themselves.

This resonates with what Paul saw in the Philippian believers—those he loved and prayed for (Philippians 1:3). He could see the end; he knew what they’d be when all was said and done. The Bible gives us a grand vision of the end of the story—resurrection and the renewal of all things (See 1 Corinthians 15 and Revelation 21). But it also tells us who’s writing the story. Paul, in the opening lines of a letter he wrote from prison, reminded the Philippian church that “he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus” (Philippians 1:6). Jesus started the work and He’ll complete it. The word completion is particularly important—the story doesn’t just end, for God leaves nothing unfinished.

Where are you in your story? How can you trust Jesus to take the “pen” from your hand and to bring your story to completion?

Dear Jesus, You're in charge of my story. It's not up to me to make it happen. I surrender my life to You. Help me trust You.

Time to start thinking about Christmas

Poinsettia memorial/shut-in delivery

This year, we will be doing the tribute booklet, but we have added something to it.

When putting in your poinsettia memorial, you have the opportunity to have your poinsettia delivered to a Trinity shut-in, as long as they are not in a nursing home or hospital that prohibits the delivery of flowers. These will be delivered a few weeks before Christmas.

As in the past, you have the opportunity to pick-up your poinsettia after services, which you would indicate on the order form.

We will also be looking for individuals to deliver the poinsettias to the shut-ins.

The beginning of October...no better time than right now to think about Christmas Eve! Unprecedented, sure, but this is 2020 after all. We have experienced, suffered, and lived through, and continue to live through quite a bit this year. Affecting all of us; and all of us differently. So why not look to Christmas...to the Manger, to the Christ Child, to that night in Bethlehem so long ago...Yes, let's look now!

We have begun the planning for our socially-distanced Christmas Eve services. We lost our in-person Easter celebrations and we don't want to lose the coming of Christ Jesus into our lives at Christmas. We are planning to open the sanctuary, main Sunday school room, and Trinity Hall for worship space to allow people and families to worship on the most Holy night of the year together again! We will of course be recording and have available on Trinity's website (www.trinitypottsville.com) and YouTube channel, a Christmas service (just as we have been providing since the weekend of March 21-22) for everyone and anyone who still feels safer and more comfortable worshipping at home (which is something I wholly endorse and support for anyone who still has concerns as my mindset and first priority throughout this year has always been for the safety and then worship-life for all our members).

We will be limiting and socially distancing our available seating in each of these areas of the church for each worship service. And, as we normally have well over 300 people in attendance for our 5PM Christmas Eve service, we ask you to please contact the church office (570-622-9910) to reserve seating for the 5PM Christmas Eve service as each of our services will only be able to accommodate approximately 200 people in total (80 people in the sanctuary, 60 in the main Sunday school room, and 60 in Trinity Hall). As our 7:30 and 10PM services do not approach the same numbers, reservations may not be necessary for those services.

In addition, you will find enclosed within this edition of our newsletter, our Poinsettia ordering information and Christmas tribute form. We are bringing both these items to your attention a little earlier as there are a few changes to our normal Christmas season practices this year.

First, the Poinsettias. We are planning to have two “sets” of Poinsettias this year. The first set would be ordered early and distributed to our homebound members. We will not be able to distribute these to the hospitals or nursing homes as (even without the Coronavirus pandemic) those places have long stopped accepting flowers. This set would not be placed within the church but would be distributed at some point after Thanksgiving (and early during the Advent season). Therefore, Poinsettia orders must be placed by November 20th.

The second set of Poinsettias would be delivered to us prior to our Christmas Eve services (as normal) and will be placed within the sanctuary for Christmas Eve services (although the actual orders will need to be placed at the same time as the “deliverable” set of Poinsettias).

With your Poinsettia order, please indicate if you would like to “donate” your Poinsettia to one of our homebound members, or if you would like to pick up your Poinsettia after Christmas Eve.

There is also a new addition to the Christmas Tribute memorial options; the “Rismiller Memorial Carillon Fund”. This fund has been set-up to purchase and maintain a Carillon for Trinity. Briefly, this is a piece of equipment that can play music or chimes over a speaker system that can be heard throughout the community. My home church has one and it plays every evening at 6:30 PM (timing can be pre-selected) and the sound quality is beautiful and peaceful. We are currently in the process of making all the necessary arrangements and research for the best possible unit for Trinity and our community.

Thank you for your patience, understanding, and cooperation during this time as we continue to work very hard to serve you, the members of Trinity, with the light of Christ Jesus in light of our continued circumstances!

Peace be with you all!

Pastor Chris
